Growing in Christ

ON JOURNEY WITH GOD

"He has told you, O Man, what is good; and what does the Lord require of you, but to do justice, to love kindness, and to walk humbly with the Lord your God?" Micah 6:8

The Christian life is not a one time experience or divine encounter. It is more than a single spiritual event (the New Birth) that readies us for heaven. It is a journey through many life changing experiences, multiple encounters with God, plans that He has marked out for our lives, and the joy of arriving at a final destination.

Micah tells us God's requirement for our lives, it is to walk humbly with Him. The Bible says that Enoch walked with God (Gen.5:22, 24). It states that Noah was a righteous, blameless man; that he too walked with God (Gen.6:9). God told Abraham in Genesis 17:1, "Walk before Me," and then later in Genesis 24:40, Abraham proclaims that he had indeed walked before the Lord. Jesus' most frequent words to his would be disciples were "Follow Me." He was going somewhere. Meeting Jesus was not the destination. It was the beginning of a new direction for one's life. Jesus was always moving. There were places to go, lessons to learn, and things to accomplish. Just as people had walked with God in the Old Testament, Jesus invited His disciples to walk with Him. Or, in other words, join the journey.

Paul made it clear to Christians of his day that there was more to the Christian life than simply receiving Jesus. He said, "As you therefore have received Christ Jesus the Lord, so walk in Him. (Col.2:6)"

In short, God invites us to join Him on this incredible spiritual journey. That is what this journal is all about. It is to help each one of us in our walk with Him along the path that He has traced for our lives. It is our hope that you will experience the Lord in new and fresh ways. Imagine where you will be one year from now if you respond to the call to follow Jesus in 07. Consider yourself On Journey with God.

MY JOURNEY WITH GOD'S WORD

God's Word functions like a map & compass, directing us on this spiritual journey. There are many ways in which to read and study one's Bible. It can be studied academically for the pursuit of knowledge, such as history, theology, and culture, but God's primary objective in giving us the Bible is to speak directly to our hearts and shape our lives.

The discipline and practice of daily reading God's Word has proven to be indispensable to this journey and walk with God. This journal provides a plan for daily readings in God's Word. If one follows the plan, it is possible to read through the Old Testament once and the New Testament twice in a year. In addition, one will read through the Psalms and Proverbs twice. Space is provided for recording the things learned or heard from God through His Word and prayer each day.

It is highly recommended that as you read, study, and meditate on each day's Bible readings, that you exercise great care and diligence to do the following:

1) See & Hear

Your aim should be to see Jesus with greater clarity & hear His voice more clearly in order to know where He is leading you that you may follow.

2) Rightly Interpret God's Word

You must exercise care not to read your own ideas and understanding into the text, but rather read out of the text what it is actually saying. You should aim to understand (interpret) the Bible as God meant it. Thus, do not ask the question, "What does it mean to me?" Rather, ask the question, "What does it mean to God?"

3) Let God's Word Rightly Interpret Your Own Life

One of the great functions of God's Word is to help us see the true state of our spiritual lives. Because we have our own perspective (or interpretation) of how we are doing spiritually, it is essential that we get God's perspective of our lives, by allowing His Word to rightly interpret us.

4) Apply God's Word to Your Life

The Bible tells us to be doers of the Word and not merely hearers. The goal of reading one's Bible is not to amass knowledge, but to find ways to apply it to one's life.

5) To Equip You for Ministry

Finally, you should read God's Word in order to equip you for effective ministry.

Daily Prayer Before Reading the Word

Heavenly Father,

I give you my heart and mind. Please open my eyes that I might see Jesus. Please open my ears that I might hear your voice as you speak to my heart. Let your Word work in me to bring about a positive spiritual change in my life. And by your grace, help me to be responsive to what I read today, and help me live it out for your glory.

*In Jesus Name,
Amen*

MY JOURNEY THROUGH PRAYER

Too often in our relationship with God, we simply invite Him to go on our journey with us. We set the direction and course for our lives, and then expect God to come along. He comes in very handy for us in times of difficulty or need because then we can pray and ask Him to help us out of this mess we have gotten ourselves into. In moments when we become lost or confused, we ask God for guidance, but usually we are asking Him to help us find our way back to our path and to our journey.

We want to suggest a whole different approach to our relationship with God and to prayer for the year 2007. God invites us to go on a journey with Him. He invites us into a story so much larger than ourselves. As we make the decision to go with Him on His journey, we realize how fully and how deeply we need His guidance. If we choose to go with Him on His journey, we begin to realize that we must be in constant communication with Him. Prayer will become our life line, our vital connection to God and His infinite resources. If we choose to go with God on His journey, we are going to realize that He is calling us to live a life with a focus beyond ourselves. God wants us to live as ambassadors for Him, carrying His love and His grace to a lost and hurting world. He wants every day to be an adventure of seeing whom we can bless in His name and how. He will be our supply. He will be our strength. Most importantly, He will be our guide. If we are going to go on a journey with Him, prayer becomes a top priority for we must spend time with Him to know His will, His purposes and His way.

In Luke 18, Jesus tells a parable about a persistent widow, and the purpose of the parable is to show that we should pray and never give up. At the conclusion of this parable, Jesus asks a very interesting question: "When the Son of man comes, will He find faith on earth?" Jesus knows how much faith it takes to live a life devoted and dedicated to prayer. Jesus seemed to know how difficult this type of devotion and dedication would be in the busyness and confusion of the last days, and He is curious to know if, in the last days, there will be people with enough faith to be devoted and dedicated to prayer. Every day we answer His question by the way that we live and by the priority, or the lack thereof, which we place on prayer. God is calling us to go on a journey with Him. It will demand a strong faith and a strong commitment to His Word and to prayer.

A final key component that is all too often neglected in prayer is listening. Listening for God involves being willing to wait in His presence and to allow our hearts and our minds to become still and quiet so that we can hear what God has to say above the noise and confusion of our hearts and minds and lives. We live in such a busy, fast-paced, noisy world that waiting and listening is very difficult for us. It is our hope that as you journey with Christ through prayer, that you will learn the art of listening and the act of following His will and His way.

During the year 2007, we are encouraging you to have one or more people to whom you are committed to encourage in their faith journey. Usually these are going to be people that don't seem to be connected to a church. They might be saved, but are just struggling in their faith journey or they might be lost and you are seeking to do your part to help lead them to a saving faith. One of the most important things which you can do for this person or this group of people is to pray for them on a daily basis and to release God's grace and provision into their lives and to ask God to show you how you can serve and help them on their faith journey.

BIBLE READING SCHEDULE

We want to encourage you to choose a Bible Reading Schedule for 2008. In the pages which follow, you will find TWO Bible Reading schedules, but the reality is that there are as many as FOUR or more within these two.

The FIRST Bible Reading schedule will take you through the Bible in a year. It includes an Old Testament and New Testament reading.

The SECOND Bible Reading schedule will take you through the Old Testament once, through the New Testament twice and through Psalms and Proverbs twice. This is a very ambitious undertaking. This is the schedule which we had in the journal last year.

A THIRD idea for a Bible reading schedule could be to just do the New Testament readings in the second schedule, and then you will read through the New Testament twice in a year.

A FOURTH idea for a Bible reading schedule would be to just do the New Testament reading in the first schedule, and then you would read through the New Testament over the course of the year. You can always add a Psalm or a Proverb as well.

We do believe that it is important to have a schedule because it gives you exposure to more of the Bible, and there is an accountability to being faithful to the schedule. Press on, and let us hear how it is going.
